DEDICATION—MRS. VELMA HILL

1958

*Best Wishes
Velma Hill*

We dedicate the 1958 WOODLOG to Mrs. Velma Hill because we love her for herself, as well as for the patience, wisdom, and interest she has shown in the problems of the younger generation. This is her contribution toward building a better Woodlawn and so a better world. She has inspired us with the self confidence we needed, and will for all our lives greatly appreciate.

PRINCIPAL—MR. MARTIN

A great influence in any school is its principal. This possibly accounts in a large measure for our success in several fields, for certainly Mr. Martin is our leader. By encouraging high ideals and development of interests, by showing friendly concern and expressing delight when we need it most he has won a place in our hearts and a genuine respect from each of us. When we remember the highlights of our days at Woodlawn we shall not forget the inspiration received from our guide and leader, Mr. Ralph Martin.

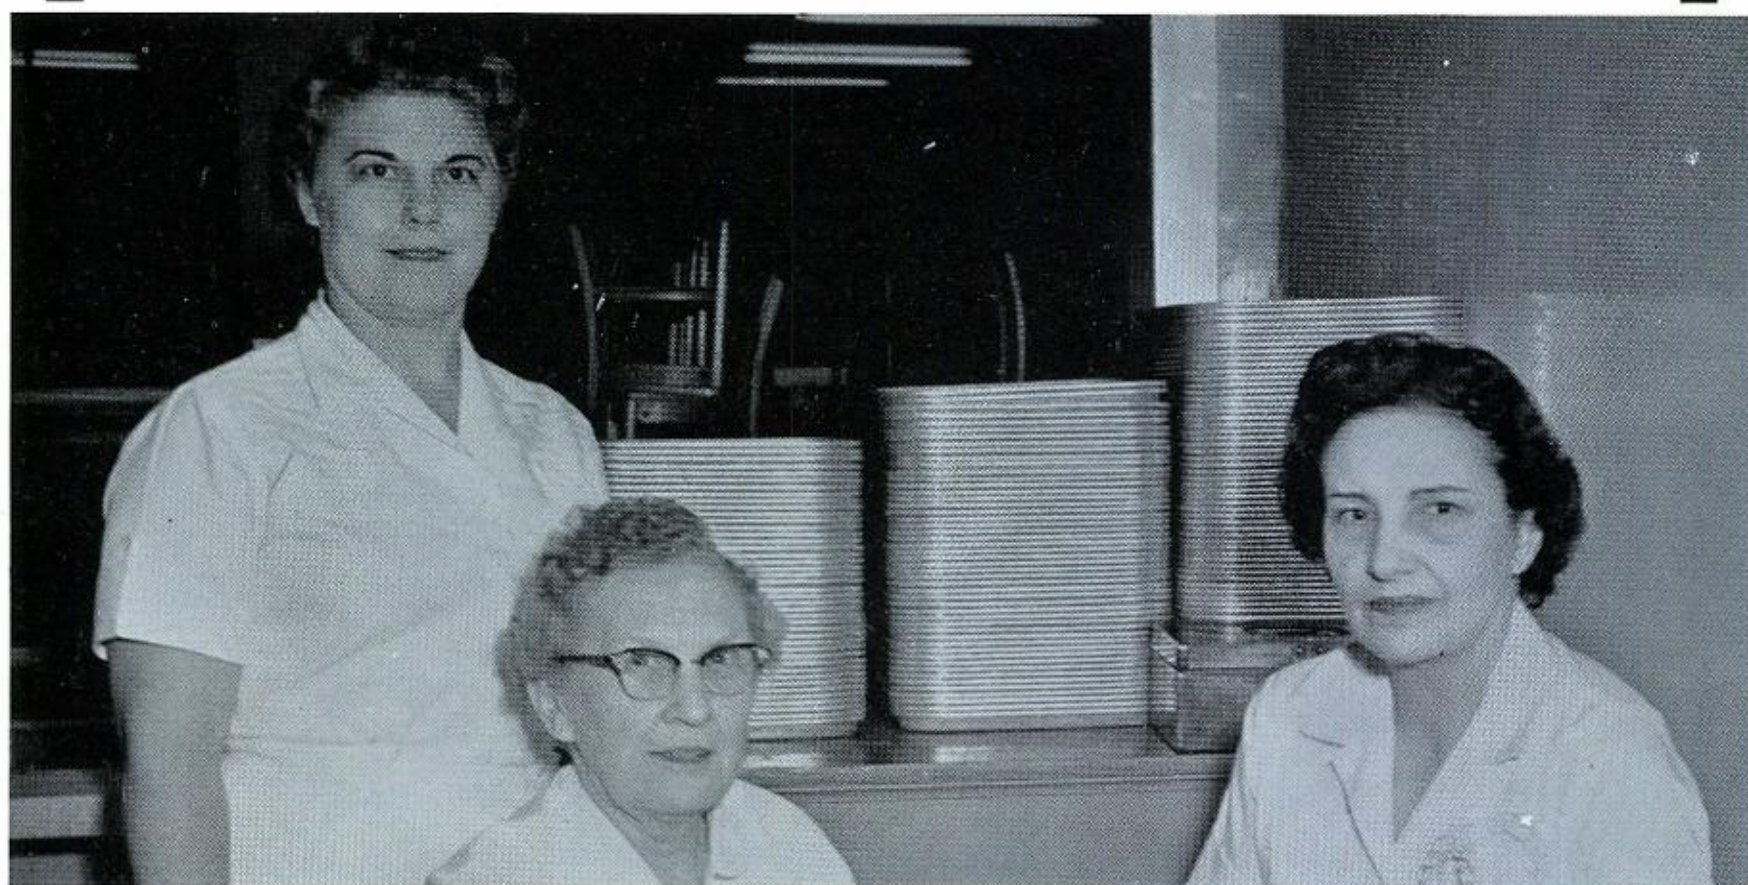

Mrs. C. F. Bradley, second vice president; Mrs. W. E. Dawson, president; Mr. R. W. Youngblood, first vice president; Mrs. M. C. Pope, secretary; Mr. Ralph Martin, treasurer; Mrs. E. G. Franklin, assistant treasurer.

Our parents, under the direction of these leaders, are willing to back us at any cost, and cost it usually does.

The careful and faithful service of these ladies is essential to our health in the preparation of our food.

Mrs. Cocks, Mrs. Blackburn, assistant; and Mrs. Fullington, Manager.

PUBLICATIONS MANAGERS

These section leaders did the enormous job of managing the WOODLOG sales for the entire school.

Doug Nunnelley, Jacky Deneke, Emily Gannaway, Carolyn Carothers, Faye Powe, Martha James, Dale Callahan, Patsy Bolle.

Students below had complete charge of distribution of TATLERS throughout the school each time an issue came out.

1958

Each student in this picture was the WOODLOG sales representative in his session room. Altogether they sold more than 900 WOODLOGS.

First row: Mary Adams, Peggy Cobb, Betty Dunn, Mary Warren, Donna Rutledge, Billie Hood, Linda Davis, Billie Fuller, Roy Gable, Ian Hardin. Second row: Pat Seymour, Shirley Jones, Kay Brindley, Bette Broom, Barbara McEwen, Cornelia Witte, Rosella Sharritt, Phyllis Fock, Donna Smith, Gail Pitts, Marlin Miller. Third row: Johnny Busby, Barbara Harrell, Judy Steele, Janice Leonard, Linda Stevens, Anne Gray, Mary Stevens, Jeannette Jones, Emma Carroll, Donna Summers. Fourth row: Monte Singleton, Jackie Conn, Linda Williams, Billie Malone, Janice Hochholzer, Ernest Fife, Cary Logan, Linda Newman, Annette Davis, Jane Powe, Robert Jones, Johnny Lovechio, Mack Lovvorn, Donald Southerland, Johnny Vines, Jimmy Ives, James Cannon, Don Harper, David McBrayer.

In order to keep the school informed of current activities and news, a newspaper, the TATLER, is published twice a month. Proofreading a copy of the TATLER are: Billy Morgan, associate editor; Miss Skelton, sponsor; Earlene Rivers, editor-in-chief.

WOODLOG STAFF 1958

The WOODLOG staff publishes the WOODLOG annually. It preserves, largely in pictures, memories of fun, achievements, and honors for the students of Woodlawn High School. Co-Editors of the 1958 WOODLOG: Carole Bell and Ida Ray Cooley.

1958 WOODLOG STAFF

Posing in front of a WOODLOG poster: Sandy Straub, Ads Supervisor; Jimmy Rawls, Art Editor; Glenn Jett, Head Photographer. These boys are the ones who are responsible for our ads, art work, and pictures for the WOODLOG. They have done a great job!

Miss Barnard, WOODLOG Advisor, and Miss Fuller, Feature Advisor, have led the staff through many rough days. The staff wants to congratulate both of them on their first year as Advisors for the yearbook. They have done a great job!

Checking, filing, and typing! Will there be no stop? Those checking: Evelyn Corley, Administration Editor; Linda Shepherd, Artist; Ann Abercrombie, Typist; Annette Davis, Administration Editor; Don Nunnelle, Ads; Doug Nunnelle, Photographer.

GIRLS' GYM 1958

Two finalists in the class intramural table tennis tournament fight it out for first place.

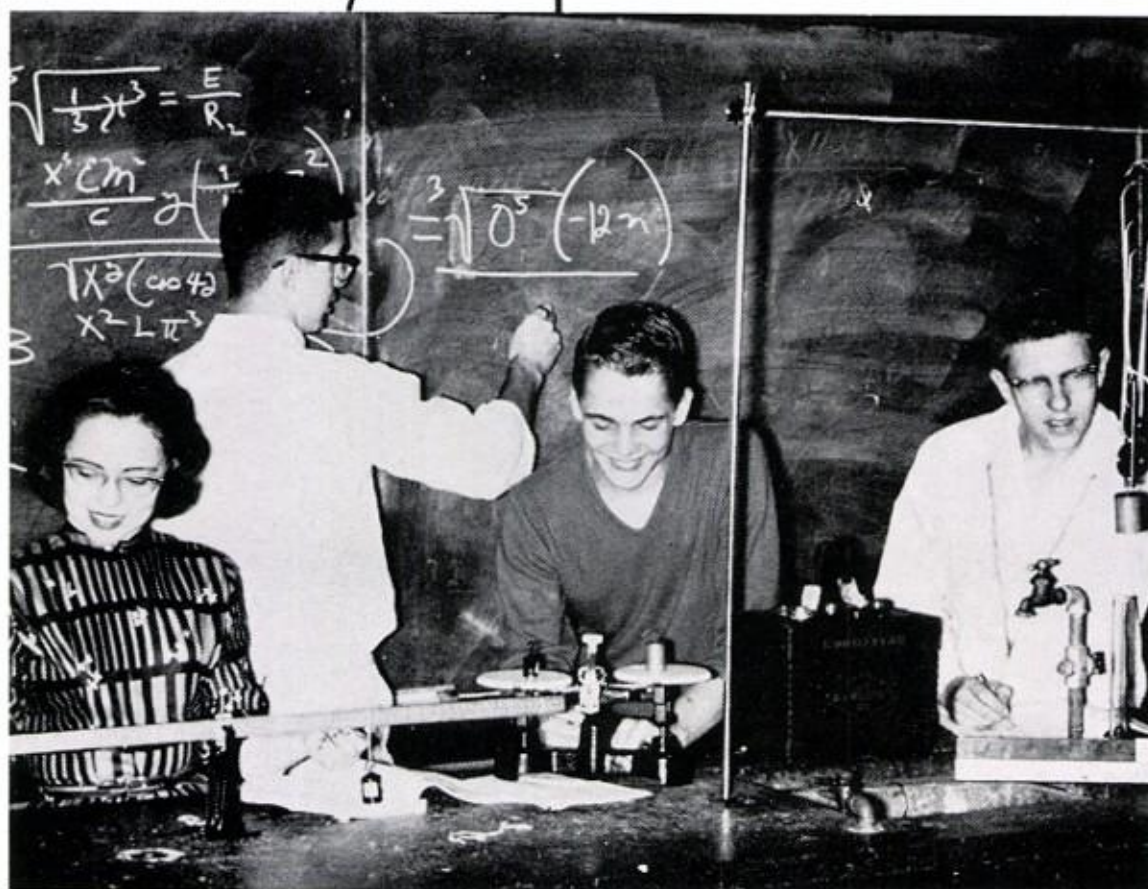

A new feature of the girls' gym program is the intramural system which was organized this year. Clubs and independent groups participate in this program, which includes volleyball, softball, basketball, and badminton.

Coordination of one's body is very important to personal appearance. These girls learn coordination, as well as balance and grace, through tumbling.

STUDENTS AT WORK 1958

Quiet please!

Perhaps a Future Yearbook Printer.

Scanning poetry in Miss Roper's English class can be fun.

Mrs. McCoy's new Civics TV class.

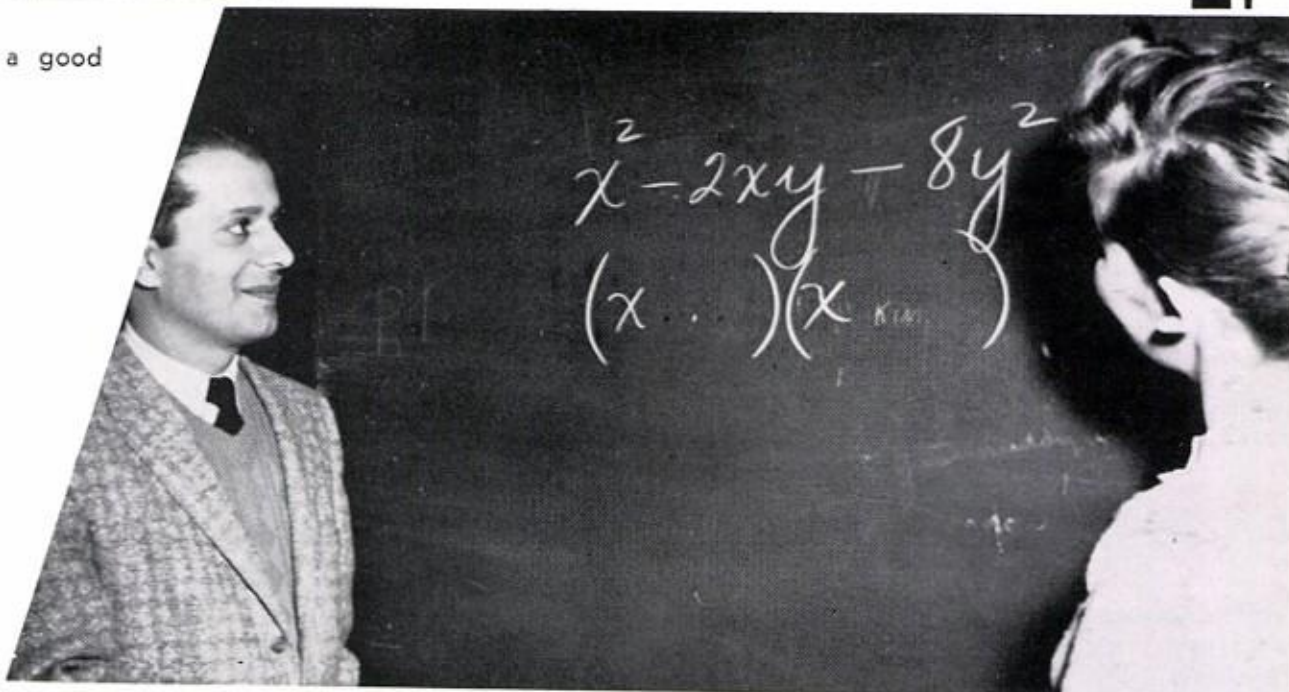

1958 STUDENTS AT WORK

Never underestimate the power of a good typist.

Happy days of popularity for Latin are coming back

Since the Space Age has arrived, more students will be taking Mathematics and liking it.

Mrs. Gullledge trains future secretary.

STUDENTS AT WORK

Mrs. Black, the art teacher, helps students, in an art class, with a block print.

Home Nursing class learns how to care for the sick.

Good sportsmanship on the road and safe driving are taught by the drivers' education classes.

Home Economics teaches girls to sew a fine seam.

COMMITTEES 1958

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE—First row: Jimmy Sudderth, Miss Fuller, sponsor; Larry Daniels. Second row: Linda Anderson, Pat Russo, Ruth Roberts. Third row: Dianne Bundy.

This committee earns money by selling pennants and decals. They concentrate on buying shrubbery and glass trophy cases. This year they plan to buy a big spotlight for the auditorium.

Not pictured:

INTER-HIGH PROMOTERS—The purpose of this organization is to promote peace and understanding throughout the school, community and world. The sponsor is Mrs. Long.

PARLIAMENTARY LAW COMMITTEE—The sponsor, with the help of the Parliamentary Law Committee, teaches Parliamentary Law, grades the Law test papers, and presides at all meetings. Their sponsor is Miss Edmonds.

Irvin Pope, Ian Hardin and Reugene Gunn.

FILM AND PROJECTOR COMMITTEE

Splice, repair, and deliver film to laboratories; operate picture machines, and public address system in auditorium; help with records in Mr. Youngblood's office.

Wide-eyed freshmen are escorted through the buildings on their first day in Woodlawn.

The first day instructions from the teachers and upperclassmen are of interest to all these freshmen.

These freshmen are wondering if high school will always be as much fun as the buddy party.

I lost my buddy!

Staff members, Patsy Bolle and Linda Shepherd, made the ads in the 1958 WOODLOG.

Mr. John L. Tarrant of the Woodlawn High Science Department processed all pictures taken by students.

Many students from commercial classes and the sponsor's English Classes gave much study time to help with sorting pictures and typing.
